

LANGUAGE ISSUES

Volume 1, No. 1, May 2020

A WELCOME MESSAGE FROM THE EDITORS

Dear Readers,

We take great pleasure in welcoming you to our new journal, Language Issues. We have created this publication with the intention of providing a space of collaboration and exchange of dialogue, critique, and knowledge through the immediacy of an e-based approach/platform.

Our vision is to create a high-quality publication that will be diverse and thought-provoking. We welcome theoretical contributions, original research, commentaries, and reviews on the issues of language and literature.

Language problems are as varied as language users and contexts. Hence, addressing these problems will require a synergy of standards across a broad spectrum that transcends the 'givens.' Language Issues, much like the nature of language itself, is not confined to the insight of traditional givens, but rather invites interdisciplinary modes of enquiry to address, analyze, and intervene in issues both old and contemporary. Operating from a multidimensional dimension, Language Issues offers interdisciplinarity as its distinguishing mark, an endeavor achieved by the blending of theoretical and methodological approaches, a blend that is both vital and required for addressing if not resolving the varied and complex language-based problems encountered in literature and the real world. It is this blend of synergy that we seek to find and embrace from a collective community of practice.

We are extremely pleased and delighted that you are joining us as readers and, we hope, as contributors.

Dr. Leyla Savsar

On behalf of the editorial board